

Diploma Policy (College of Humanities and Sciences, Education)

The College of Humanities and Sciences at Nihon University confers the degree of Bachelor of Education upon those who, under the Nihon University Educational Charter, have acquired the necessary understanding of the Purpose and Mission of Nihon University, and have developed the abilities that constitute autonomous creativity: learning independently, thinking independently, and forging one's own path.

[DP1]

Having a broad education and strong sense of ethics, be able to connect and comprehensively apply the specialized knowledge and skills acquired through the Department of Education degree program.

[DP2]

Possess a rich imagination and understanding of diverse cultures and societies past and present, East and West, and have developed an empathetic sense and attitude toward others, including minorities.

[DP3]

Develop logical and critical thinking abilities that connect and comprehensively apply the specialized knowledge and skills acquired through the Department of Education degree program.

[DP4]

Be able to, on scientific basis, elucidate the laws of nature, recognize the conflicts and contradictions of humanity and society in all their complexity, and identify problems.

[DP5]

Have the determination to create something new and be able to take action.

[DP6]

Be able to accept to others' thoughts and ideas through various media, including language and physical expression, and to convey one's own thoughts and ideas while engaging in creative dialogue and discussion.

[DP7]

Confront recognized issues, collect and analyze accurate information, cooperate with many people, and demonstrate leadership in interpretation and problem-solving.

[DP8]

Be conscious of oneself as a citizen of the world, reflect on the social significance of one's professional knowledge, and relate it to general practice.