

Diploma Policy (College of Humanities and Sciences, Literature)

The College of Humanities and Sciences at Nihon University confers the degree of Bachelor of Literature upon those who, in accordance with the Nihon University Education Charter, have acquired the necessary understanding of the Purpose and Mission of Nihon University, and have developed the abilities that constitute autonomous creativity: learning independently, thinking independently, and forging one's own path.

[DP1] Be able to cultivate a broad and profound knowledge of literature, thought, history, and diverse languages, enhancing one's ethical engagement with society.

[DP2] Be able to understand the history of Japan and the world, as well as the challenges faced by the international community, and explain them from various perspectives based on specialized knowledge gained in the study of literature and various languages.

[DP3] Be capable of thinking critically and logically when analyzing information obtained based on concepts and theories in the humanities without being constrained by existing knowledge, and striving to grasp its essence.

[DP4] Be able to carefully observe and examine materials and phenomena, proactively identify problems, and propose solutions through research in the humanities.

[DP5] Based on specialized knowledge acquired in the study of the humanities, have the ability to boldly take on challenges for the future of the field with a strong sense of purpose.

[DP6] Be able to listen to others' opinions in various languages, understand and respect differing values, articulate their own thoughts, and engage in meaningful discussions with others.

[DP7] Be capable of applying practical skills in the humanities to collaborate with others in a group, exercise leadership, bring out the strengths of collaborators, and support their contributions.

[DP8] Be able to objectively reflect on themselves, enhance their qualities through self-examination, and deepen their understanding of diverse cultures to further develop their own abilities.