C. Other information

Language Requirements:

For courses at CHS:

Students wishing to take College courses taught in Japanese are expected to have the equivalent of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT) N2 or N1.

Accommodation and Cost of Living* :

CHS will reserve accommodation for exchange students. All rooms are single rooms with desk and bed in separate men's and women's dormitories. The monthly cost is approximately ¥77,200, including breakfast, dinner, electricity, and internet.

Each dormitory is located 30 minutes away from CHS. Exchange students may purchase a commuter pass to the college. The pass costs about ¥3,000 / month.

The estimated monthly cost of living in Tokyo is around ¥100,000. * Please note that arrangements regarding payment of accommodation expenses may be different according to the details of each university's exchange agreement. Students should confirm these arrangements with their home universities.

International Student Support:

The College of Humanities and Sciences annually hosts a number of international undergraduate and graduate students from all over the world. The College offers a range of services, including the International Student Support Desk located in the Global Research and Education Center (GREC). At the Support Desk international students can also consult with International Student Supporters, seniors in the College who can offer advice and information about daily life and studies. Japanese-language learning materials and reference books are also available for perusal.
